Choose Courage by Investing in Your Leaders

EMPOWER YOUR TEAM, INSPIRE YOUR COMMUNITY, AND BE PART OF A DAY THAT CELEBRATES BOLD LEADERSHIP

The defining moments in leadership begin with a choice: to speak when silence feels safer, to stand tall when the ground shifts, to begin again after a setback. At the Midwest Leadership Summit, courage is more than a theme. It is the foundation that helps us lead with integrity, confidence, and heart.

Each April, hundreds of professionals gather to connect, learn, and reignite their sense of purpose. Together, we explore how courage drives innovation, resilience, and authentic growth within organizations and across our community.

This year's theme, Choose Courage, invites leaders to face uncertainty with conviction and clarity. Attendees will hear from thought leaders who have navigated change and challenge, discovering how courage has shaped their influence and success. Expect a day filled with fresh insights, practical tools, and meaningful conversations that move leaders forward.

Sponsoring the Midwest Leadership Summit connects your organization with Kansas City's most engaged leaders and changemakers.

As a sponsor, you will:

- Be recognized as a supporter of bold, authentic leadership.
- Give your team access to inspiration and actionable tools through tickets to the Summit.
- Align your brand with an event that values growth, innovation, and collaboration.

Your partnership helps create a space where courage inspires change. Let's find the sponsorship package that fits your goals and connects you with today's most engaged leaders.

Who Attends the Summit?

COURAGEOUS LEADERS FROM EVERY FIELD

Each year, the Midwest Leadership Summit gathers over 1,100 attendees from across Kansas City and beyond. The Summit brings professionals from all career stages, genders, generations, and disciplines, creating a collective energy that inspires reflection, learning, and genuine connection.

Attendees include emerging professionals, entrepreneurs, community leaders, and executives who come together to share experiences, exchange ideas, and challenge themselves to lead with intention.

More than 200 organizations take part annually, representing a wide range of industries and perspectives. Whether attending in person or virtually, every participant becomes part of a thoughtful, forward-looking community that believes courage is not just a trait but a practice that grows stronger when shared.

Meet the Keynotes

CANDACE
DOBY

Candace Doby is founder of The Can-Do Company. She is a leadership development strategist, author of A Cool Girl's Guide To Courage, and professional speaker who works with organizations to create a culture of courage where employees spend less time and energy censoring and hiding themselves and more time performing at their highest potential.

Candace combines a decade of research on courage with her experiences traveling the world solo and a 16-year, award-winning marketing career — much of which was spent leading teams at Chipotle. This unique combination equips her with the actionable strategies she has shared with leaders across the globe to help them courageously speak up, step up and show up in the workplace. Her work has been featured on MSNBC, NPR and TEDx.

Candace is the creator of The Courage Hotline podcast and host of The Own Your Brilliance retreat.

Hayley Podschun is a Broadway star, screen actor, and in-demand keynote speaker who brings infectious energy, humor, and heart to every stage she steps on. From playing Glinda in Wicked, Tammy in Hairspray on Broadway and in the movie, alongside John Travolta, Queen Latifah and Michelle Pfeiffer, to guest hosting on QVC, Hayley has spent her life in the spotlight—learning how to perform, pivot, and thrive under pressure. A Kansas native who started working professionally at age 10, Hayley's career spans eight Broadway shows, national tours, film and TV appearances, and acclaimed regional performances. Today, she shares the “Whatever It Takes” mindset that helped her succeed in one of the most competitive industries in the world—empowering audiences to embrace change, lead with confidence, and go after their biggest dreams with grit and grace.

Whether she's sharing stories from backstage or lessons learned under the lights, Hayley leaves audiences energized, inspired, and ready to fly.
